

Stepping Stone Manor – Residential Community Builder

The Agency

The Calgary John Howard Society (CJHS) is a community-based charitable organization dedicated to reducing the incidence of crime and increasing community safety through preventative and restorative justice practices. To accomplish these ends, we provide direct services to individuals at risk, advocacy for effective responses to crime with the individuals involved and education for youth and adults in the community.

The Program

Stepping Stone Manor is a 29 unit residential housing program that provides place based housing and intensive supports to individuals above the age of 18 who are chronically homeless and are frequent users of emergency, health, correctional and shelter services. The program offers 24/7 on site client support, working towards community integration.

The Position

The Residential Community Builders will work within the client support team on site at Stepping Stone Manor. Reporting to the Program Manager, The Residential Community Builder(s) will support clients in community integration and work as part of a shift rotation.

Roles and Responsibilities will include:

- Assist with activities of daily living, recreation and leisure opportunities;
- Facilitate activities within and outside of the building and support clients in positive pro-social engagement, as they choose.
- Completing documentation and shift duties associated with the residence;
- Support case management and goal achievement of clients.

The Residential Community Builders will have a combination of post-secondary education in a relevant discipline and experience working with the target population. Knowledge and experience of corrections, Housing First, FASD and aboriginal culture is a strong asset.

This is a full-time (40 hours/week) position with a comprehensive total compensation package.

Application will be accepted until August 13th
